Street Survival Guide

Bridge Over Troubled Waters is a multi-service youth organization that provides essential help to at-risk, runaway, and homeless young people.

The Bridge Day Program is where you can have breakfast and lunch, take a hot shower or do your laundry. There is always someone to talk to at Bridge.

If you're on the streets and need help, chances are Bridge can provide that help or find someone else who can.

This guide can help you survive while you are on the streets.

Bridge services and other agencies are listed inside. Keep this guide as resource for when you need help.

DIRECTIONS TO BRIDGE

Red/Green Line:

Park Street T Stop

Orange Line:

Downtown Crossing T. Stop

Walk down Washington Street towards Chinatown for 2 blocks and turn right onto West Street – #47 is the last door on the right.
